Parental Permission to Participate in School Activity and Waiver of Liability

Students have many opportunities to participate in various extracurricular activities at school as an outgrowth of classroom interests or special interest clubs. On occasion it will be to their advantage to attend activities away from school. However, American Heritage cannot assume responsibility for the safety and welfare of students while they are off campus beyond making reasonable provision for their supervision by representatives of American Heritage/American Academy designated to supervise the activity.

Your signature constitutes and is evident of:

1. Your consent to permit your child to participate in the school activity.
2. Your agreement to accept general liability for the participation of your child in the school activity.
3. Your agreement to waive, release, indemnify and hold harmless American Learning Systems, its members, agents and employees, from any and all claims and liability arising out of your child's participation in the school activity and transportation thereto and there from as described below.
